

Swahili Instructor: University of Georgia- USA

Swahili Instructor; University of Georgia -USA. The Department of Comparative Literature at the University of Georgia invites applications for a part time instructor of Kiswahili, with a start date of August 7, 2017.

The contract is yearly contingent on performance, funding and need.

The search committee seeks a candidate who is able to teach Swahili courses at all levels (first, second, third year) and participate in a full range of activities to grow the Kiswahili program on the University of Georgia campus.

The UGA Swahili Program currently has 200 students at three levels of instruction.

The Institute of African Studies at the UGA currently offers a Certificate and a Minor in African Studies while the Comparative Literature Department, the home for all African Languages offers a Minor in African Languages and Literatures and oversees the study abroad programs in East Africa (specifically Tanzania).

Swahili Instructor Job Duties:

Teach 3- 4 courses per year

Assess students for appropriate placement in courses

Help the Swahili team in establishing a nationally-competitive Kiswahili program, including the recruitment of students into language study and articulation with the African Studies and Study Abroad programs.

To apply for the Swahili instructor job, submit the following:

Cover letter

Curriculum Vitae

Teaching statement, discussing your teaching philosophy, approach, and experience

Representative sample of teaching materials which reflect your teaching philosophy (e.g. a syllabus)

Copy of teaching evaluations (if currently teaching or have a teaching experience)

Names and contact information for three professional referees

Contact Information:

For more information about the job

Dr. Dainess Maganda      magandad@uga.edu      Phone # 706-542-9587

Submit application by email to:

Jill Talmadge      talnjil@uga.edu      Phone # 706- 542-2140